

Lincoln Club OF PLACER COUNTY

“THE LINCOLN DOUGLAS DEBATE SERIES”

Placer County Conservation Plan (PCCP)?

- What is the PCCP and why should you care?
- What will be the PCCP’s impact on farming, housing and development in Placer County?
- What are the short term and long-term benefits and costs to taxpayers?

It is anticipated that the Placer County Supervisors will be voting on the PCCP on January 23rd. This is your chance to hear both sides debate the issue.

Guest Speakers

In support of PCCP: Mr. Robert Weygandt, Placer County Supervisor and other respected experts

In opposition to PCCP: Mrs. Brigit S. Barnes, Esq., Brigit S. Barnes & Associates, Inc. and other respected experts

Moderator: Dennis C. Revell

Other notables who will be in attendance: Placer County Supervisors, Bruce Kranz and Kirk Uhler; Fred Yeager, former Director, Placer County Planning Department; Loren Clark, Assistant Planning Director, Placer County

The Lincoln-Douglas debates were a series of formal political debates in 1858 between Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas in a campaign for one of Illinois’ two United States Senate seats. Although Lincoln lost the election, these debates launched him into national prominence which eventually led to his election as President of the United States.

Consistent with its commitment to host community education events, The Lincoln Club of Placer County is announcing the debut of its “Lincoln-Douglas Debate Series.” Its premier debate will feature some of the foremost local experts on the Placer County Conservation Plan.
